Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles is hosting “2017 K-POP Night” on Wednesday, March 20th at 7PM on the 3rd floor Ari hall. The purpose of this event is to invite local K-POP fans and share each other’s passion for Hallyu while enjoying K-POP music and dance together. Unlike previous contests, the center has invited professional dance instructors and a DJ to hold a K-POP Dance workshop, a K-POP dance battle, and a K-POP flash mob.

During this K-POP Dance Workshop, the DJ will play “Not Today” by BTS which has gotten a lot of love from fans since the song came out in February. The event will end with a flash mob.

K-POP fans will have a chance to show off their dance moves, and they will take home K-POP concert tickets as prizes, so that more people will continue to build interest in K-POP as well as the Korean culture.

The dance battle will be done with the following songs:

1. Rookie – Red Velvet
2. Cheer Up – TWICE
3. Boombayah – Black Pink
4. Fire – BTS

2017 K-POP Night is open to anyone who is 17 years old or over, and has great passion for K-POP music. They can reserve their spots on www.kccla.org. Additional inquiries should be made out to Hannah Cho at 323-936-3012 or hannah@kccla.org.

“To celebrate Korean Culture Day this month, we have organized the <2017 K-POP Night!> so that many local K-POP fans can gather and enjoy the music together. The Korean Culture Center Los Angeles will continuously endeavor to expand the Hallyu wave throughout America with many K-POP events and festivals,” says Nak Jung Kim, director of Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles.

*Every last Wednesday of the month is <Korean Culture Day>

The events will vary from exhibitions, workshops, movies, taekwondo performances, and many other cultural events. This year, come enjoy Korean culture at the Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles every last Wednesday of the month!
