The Korean Cultural Center, LA (Wijin Park, Director) and Goodwill Cooperation Society International, LA(Andrew Lee, President) are jointly presenting the 42nd workshop for law enforcement personnel on January 9th 2020, from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM, at Arie Hall on the 3rd floor of the Korean Cultural Center.

The workshop entails a variety of Korean cultural experiences such as the history of immigration, Korean food, understanding of Korean culture and Koreans, basic Korean language and manners, and changes and conflicts within immigrant Korean families. This workshop is a representative workshop held by the Korean Cultural Center, LA and was designed to broaden the understanding of Korean culture and reduce the disadvantage that may arise from cultural differences.

Approximately 40 police officers from the Hollywood, Wilshire, Pacific, West Traffic, West LA, Olympic, and Office West Bureau stations will be participating in the 2019 42nd Workshop. Furthermore, Captain Randall Goddard from the West Bureau Division will also be joining to encourage police officers to participate in the workshop.

The LAPD (Los Angeles Police Department) workshops began in 2008 and has held 42 workshops as of 2019, with a total of 1,804 police officers participating to date. Besides the LAPD workshops, the Korean Cultural Center, LA has been holding workshops on Korean history and culture for the Sheriff's Department of LA County from July 2011.
