Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (Director Nakjung Kim), Photographers Society of Southern California (President Alex S. Kim) proudly present the 12th Annual exhibition from December 8 to December 21, 2017 at the Korean Cultural Center Art Gallery, located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90036.

This exhibition will display over 35 photographs by the Photographers Society of Southern California, Korean Artists and local Artists.

This exhibition will display over 36 photographs by the Photographers Society of Southern California, Korean Artists, and local other community artists. Through their works, you can easily find beautiful small creatures all around us in our daily lives which we unknowingly pass by every day.

Nakjung Kim, Director of the Korean Cultural Center says, “Their individual artwork is a path to the artists' soul and mind. They made every endeavor to making these pleasing works come to fruition. I wish that people would come to enjoy these priceless photographic art works, and my hope is that this exhibition will be an excellent chance for everyone to discover the importance of protecting the natural environment.”

Following the opening ceremony, the Photographers Society of Southern California will give away 2018 calendar that is made by work of member of Photographers Society of Southern California. The exhibition is open to the public and the opening reception will be held on Friday, December 8, 2017 at 7:00p.m. at the Korean Cultural center Los Angeles 2nd floor, Art Gallery. You will have the opportunity to view wonderful works and also have the chance to get the new year's calendar at the opening reception.
