The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA) and BONA K-Classic Association (B.A.C.A) will present a special performance " A Night of Korean Art Songs and Stories" on Friday, July 27th, 2018 at 7:30P.M. on the 3rd floor of the Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles, Ari Hall.

Participating artists include Music Director Hea Ja Lee, Accompanists Kyungsook Lee & Joo Young Kim, Soprano Clara Lee, Kayla Kim, Tenor Wi Young Oh, Doo Suk Yang, Bariton Hong Suk Chae, the guest singer Soprano Hye Jung Kang from Korea.

The performance will feature various Korean art songs like 'Magnolia', 'Dreaming for tomorrow', 'Years, in the Glow', 'Love Song on the Mt. Surak', 'Love in My Gathered Hans', 'Dongshimcho', 'Lonely House', 'Snow', 'Longing Homeland', 'Majoong', and etc.

The second part of the concert "Talk & Sing", which will be the highlight of the event, will be led by Soprano Kayla Kim & Tenor Doo Suk Yang. They're both classical musicians, actively performing as soloists. Kyungsook Lee and Joo Young Kim will be the accompanists for the session.

B.K.C.A. (BONA K-Classic Association) is an organization of professional musicians in Korea and America assembled in order to share and popularize Korean art songs and classical music for people of all generations who love music in Southern California and America by holding various concerts and seminars.

Nak Jung Kim, the director of KCCLA said, "Celebrating the Korean Culture Day of July, we've arranged a special stage with the theme of Korean art songs, which will be performed by classical musicians based here in the U.S. and in Korea. We hope this event presents a quality time to the audience, enjoying and sharing the beauty of Korean art songs with second-generation Koreans and people with diverse ethnic backgrounds."

The concert is free but phone or online reservation is required prior the performance.

*Every last Week of the month is <Korean Culture Day>

The events will vary from exhibitions, workshops, movies, taekwondo performances, and many other cultural events. This year, come enjoy Korean culture at the Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles every last Wednesday of the month.
