Kang Dae Seung is the Founder of the Korean Traditional Intangible Cultural Center. He learned Kangnyong Talchum, Korea's intangible cultural asset No.34, in the early 1970s from Sowoon Yang. He was designated as the foreign honorary successor by Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism in 2014. He majored in Korean Dance and worked as a principal dancer at the National Dance Company and the Municipal Dance Company for 15 years. He launched Duraepae in Korea in 1985, and performed overseas including USA, Japan, China, Australia, and European countries as Korea's promotional Art Company. He moved to America in 2000, and has been promoting Korean culture as well as strengthening Korean spirit of the second generations via myriads of performances since then.

*This performance is presented as a part of the Korean Cultural Center’s 2017 ARI PROJECT Season 4: Performing arts series, which features a rich program of various performing arts programs including Korean traditional music and dance, modern fusion world music, Jazz, royal court tea ceremonies, puppet shows as well as theater.
-PROGRAM-

1. Daebuk and Samul Hapjoo
This is the best of Korea Traditional Intangible Cultural creations. This performance brings out the maximum capacity of Bara rhythm and Samul rhythm by large Buk and Bara rhythmic movement.

2. Dance "Dosalpuri"
This dance piece is “For the dead,” performed to console the soul of the dead who died unfairly and unjustly as a grief remembrance of the loved ones and to raise the spirits of all who have been touched by tragedies.

3. Gyeonggi Minyo (Folk Song of Gyeonggi Area)
Gyeonggi Minyo refers to folk songs handed down in Seoul and Gyeonggi-do, but the pieces designated as an important cultural heritage are Gyeonggi Gin Japga (Long Miscellaneous Songs of Gyeonggi), which are also called Gyeonggi Jwachang.

4. Seol Janggo Garak
“Seol” means performance in standing. This is performance played by Janggo. It will give you fantastic harmonized rhythm based on pace of seol janggo.

5. Buk Nori (The playoff drum dance)
4th Act: After drumming, the monks borrow money from Oaejangnyeo to have Ae-sadang (a Buddhist drummer) appear. Finally, they all dance and play with the drum.

6. Pansori Danga "Sachulga" / Jeokbyeokga “Jangseung Taryeong”
Pansori is a Korean genre of musical storytelling performed by a vocalist and a drummer. Danga, presented before a main song, is simpler in rhythm, melody, and the way of singing, even though they are almost similar with pansori.

7. Saennim, Miyal, P’odopujang Nori (The play of a gentleman scholar an old woman and the police inspector)
11th Act: Saennim keeps a secret mistress and drives away his wife Miyal, and P’odopujang take his concubine away from him at last.

8. Byeon Geom
Korea art of face changing (Byeon Geom) is a composite art based on Korean traditional mask music, costume and dance movement.

9. Samulnori 'Wotdari Nogak Garak'
This combines many small paces and fast rhythms and delicate changes of kkwangari jjaksoe.

※ The program is subject to change without notice.
