Tradition,

Nak Jung Kim, Director of the Korean Cultural Center says, “All of us at the Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles are always thinking of ways to get closer to other communities, and we felt that sharing wonderful art works to our neighbors might be a good idea. This is why we started the LA Art Project. The art pieces of this exhibition reflect the love and passion each artist has, especially for nature and people.”

KCCLA is grateful for the opportunity to share the works of great artists with other communities. We invite everyone in Southern California to come see this wonderful exhibition and share thoughts together.

The exhibition is open to the public and the opening reception will be held on Friday, March 10th, 2017 at 7:00p.m. at the KCCLA 2nd floor art gallery. You will have the chance to meet with the artists at the opening reception.

This show is open to the public. If you are interested in attending the opening ceremony, please RSVP at rsvp@kccla.org or call 323-936-3014.
