KCCLA (Director Sangwon Jung) hosts the free film screening of the movie <The Host>, directed by Bong Joon-ho in 2006, at the center's auditorium Ari Hall on Wednesday, July 10 at 7 p.m. This is part of the center's movie screening event "Movie Night: Family on Screen" which started last May.

Movie <The Host> is drawing the family's struggles to find the daughter kidnapped by a mysterious creature that appeared in Hangang River in Seoul. The movie hit 10.91 million audiences when it was released in 2006. As of May 2024, it ranks 7th in the Korea box office among all Korean films. Additionally, it was produced based on the anecdote of its director Bong Joon-ho, who won the Palme d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival and the Academy Awards for his movie <Parasite>.

KCCLA's "Movie Night: Family on Screen" aims to share the meaning of Family in Korean society with the local society through the 4 selected films among the Family on Screen Series provided by the Korean Film Archive.

This screening doesn't have an admission fee, however, audiences under the age of 13 need a guardian. Reservation is available at the KCCLA website. /END/
