The Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles (Wijin Park, Director) as a promotional partner in cooperation with Los Angeles Dance Festival (Deborah Brockus, Executive Producer), the Luckman Fine Arts Complex (Cal State LA), Seoul International Dance Festival in TANK (Moonea Choi, Artistic Director) will present a special virtual Festival "Los Angeles Dance Festival 2020" from Oct. 2-25, 4 weekends, on the www.LAdanceFEST.org and www.LuckmanArts.org

Celebrating its 8th year of bringing attention to the best contemporary dance in LA, Los Angeles Dance Festival (LADF) is partnering with the Luckman Fine Arts Complex to give the community over a month long of free programming in both showcases and classes. This year all virtual opening up the Artists of LA to the whole world.

In 2002, we moved from Live showcases in April to online festival in October. We may be out of the studios and theaters but dance continues.

LADF is and an annual gathering place where the public can view curated programs featuring the wide range of concert dance that is produced here. LADF also offers ways for the public to participate directly with the creators who work in this vibrant art form.

LADF features top talent in the dance scene who are recognized locally, nationally and internationally. The dancers and choreographers in LADF work in both the concert and commercial, Hollywood industry. Their work is featured onstage around the world in theaters and in feature films, television shows, music videos, commercials and concert tours.

Seoul International Dance Festival in TANK, Korean Cultural Center LA, City of LA Department of Cultural Affairs.

Produced by Brockus Project Dance. Executive Director, Deborah Brockus.

International Exchange

We celebrate our partnership with South Korea sharing artists with The Seoul International Dance Festival in TANK. In July 2020 LADf sent 7 works to Korea and they are sending 7 works for our October Festival. We are very pleased to have the marketing support of the Korean Cultural Center of LA working with LADF in 2020

The City of Los Angeles Cultural Affairs Department provides some funding support.
