The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA/Director Sangwon Jung) & Photographers Society of Southern California (PSSC/President Alex S. Kim) proudly present "The 16th Photographers Society of Southern California Exhibition: Riches of the land "What a Wonderful World", which will take place from December 15th to December 30th, 2022 at the Korean Cultural Center Art Gallery, located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90036.

Every year, the Photographers Society of Southern California (PSSC) brings together the works of artists and presents them under a single theme. This year's theme is 'What a Wonderful World'. This exhibition will display over 40 photographs by twelve profoundly talented members of the PSSC.

Director Sangwon Jung said, "Photography is a fierce artform, that captures the artist's soul and passion through a camera's lens. In particular, the 'Riches of the Land' exhibition welcomes you all to witness the sublimated works that capture dramatic moments that often go unnoticed in our daily lives. Through the ordinary yet beautiful landscapes that these twelve California-based Korean photographers have been able to capture—amidst the pandemic—visitors have a chance to appreciate, to gain a sense of comfort and hope, through these works."

The exhibition is open to the public and the opening reception will be held in the KCCLA Art Gallery (2nd floor) on Thursday, December 15th, 2022 at 6:30 p.m. Following the opening ceremony, the Photographers Society of Southern California will raffle give away 100 copies of the 2023 calendar that is made by the work of members of the Photographers Society of Southern California to the opening attendee. You will have the opportunity to view wonderful works and also have the chance to get the new year's calendar at the opening reception.

The exhibition is open to the public and the show will run until December 30th, 2022.
