

[2021-43]

| | | | |
|---|-----------------------|---------|-----------------------------|
|  한국문화원 Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles | Press Release | | |
| Request | For Immediate Release | | Pages : 2 |
| Date of Release | 2021.9.2(Thus) | Contact | Roh Seunghoan(323-936-3025) |

2021 Online Korean Speech Contest

To commemorate the 575th Anniversary of Hangeul Day (October 9, 2021) and Hangeul Day 2021 in California, the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles (KCCLA) and the King Sejong Institute Center, USA (KSICUSA) are pleased to announce the 2021 Online Korean Speech Contest.

Contestants will submit video entries by email through October 29, 2021.

There are about 60 prizes prepared, including a round-trip airline ticket (LA↔Incheon), Amazon gift certificates ($500, $250, $100, $25), and we are going to give special souvenirs to all the participants who do not win larger prizes.

The competition will be divided into Introductory/Basic and Intermediate/Advanced levels, respectively. Each video must be in Korean and is limited to 2 minutes for Introductory/Basic levels and 3 minutes for Intermediate/Advanced levels.

Anyone in the United States, aged 18 years or older, who is interested in Korean language and culture, or is currently learning Korean, as well as King Sejong Institute students, can participate in the event.

The theme of this year's contest can be on various topics related to Korean language or Korean culture.

Wijin Park, director of the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles, said, "events such as these are important ways of connecting people of diverse backgrounds to Korea, and we hope both beginners and more advanced learners of Korean will enjoy sharing their experiences with Korean culture."

For information, visit <https://www.kccla.org/koreanlanguageprogram/contest/> /END/