The Korean Cultural Center in Los Angeles (Director Jeong Sang-won) will hold a special screening event of the Korean animation film “The Shower(2017)” at the KCCLA Ari Hall on Wednesday, March 27th at 7 p.m. Korean Short Literature Animation Series opened on March 6th with a screening of “The Shaman Sorceress” and an audience Q&A with director Ahn Jae-hoon.

In 2017, Ahn Jae-hoon's animated film “The Shower” was released based on the Korean novel of the same name by Hwang Sun-won. The film was animated by Korea's first animation studio “Meditation with a Pencil” by Director Ahn. A boy and girl's short first love is portrayed in a simple way with visual beauty, giving the audience a warm feeling of love.

A country boy and a city girl's fresh first meeting, as well as brief but brilliant moments are the focus of Hwang Soon-won's representative novel, “The Shower”, which was published for the first time in 1952 in New Literature. “The Shower” has been widely loved for a long time, from the younger generation to the current middle-aged generation. It is being included in Korean elementary and middle school Korean language textbooks from 1960 to the present. Due to the fact that the film represents Korean popular novel, the Korean community, second and third generation immigrants, and local audiences will be able to participate in the screening and appreciate the work.

KCCLA confirmed that they will screen “The Shower” on March 27th, and “The Road Called Life” on April 17th, ‘Green Days’ on May 8th as a part of the series.

This event is free and RSVP is available at kccla.org.
