The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA/Director Sangwon Jung) & Photographers Society of Southern California (PSSC/President Alex S. Kim) proudly present “The 17th Photographers Society of Southern California Exhibition: Riches of the land " Shades of Colors”, which will take place from December 7th to December 22nd, 2023 at the Korean Cultural Center Art Gallery, located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90036.

Every year, PSSC brings together the works of artists and presents them under a single theme. This year's theme is 'Riches of the Land: Shades of Colors.' Eleven amazing photographers submitted a variety of monochrome photographs that showcase their passion and dedication to photography.

The exhibition is open to the public and the opening reception will be held in the KCCLA Art Gallery (2nd floor) on Thursday, December 7th, 2023 at 6:30 p.m. Following the opening ceremony, the Photographers Society of Southern California will raffle give away 100 copies of the 2024 calendar that is made by the work of members of the Photographers Society of Southern California to the opening attendee. The audience will have the opportunity to view wonderful works and also have the chance to get the new year's calendar at the opening reception.

The Director of KCCLA, Sangwon Jung mentioned, “Photography is a form of art that allows artists to capture the beauty in everyday moments. This exhibition features beautiful works that use light and shadows to highlight the various emotions and stories of the world. The members of PSSC have used their keen eyes and artistic sensibility to find the beauty in ordinary landscapes and transform them into stunning works of art.”

The exhibition is open to the public and the show will run until December 22nd, 2023.
