

[2020-26]

 한국문화원 Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles	Press Release
Request	For Immediate Release		Pages : 2
Date of Release	2020.8.19(Wed)	Contact	Roh Seunghoan(323-936-3025)

2020 Online Korean Speech Contest

To commemorate the 574th Anniversary of Hangeul Day (October 9, 2020) and Hangeul Day 2020 in California, the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles (KCCLA) and the King Sejong Institute Center, USA (KSICUSA) are pleased to announce the 2020 Online Korean Speech Contest.

The competition will be divided into Introductory/Basic and Intermediate/Advanced levels, respectively

Anyone in the United States, aged 18 years or older, who is interested in Korean language and culture, or is currently learning Korean, as well as King Sejong Institute students, can participate in the event.

The theme of this year's contest can be on various topics related to Korean language or Korean culture.

Contestants will submit video entries by email through October 9, 2020.

Each video is limited to 2 minutes for Introductory/Basic levels and 3 minutes for Intermediate/Advanced levels.

Wijin Park, director of the Korean Cultural Center of Los Angeles, said, "we look forward to participants not only sharing their perspectives on Korean Culture, but also learning from each other through information about their own cultures." And "We hope this event will build a bridge between Korea and other countries and that all those interested in Korean language and culture will enjoy participating in this exciting event.

For information, visit <https://www.kccla.org/koreanlanguageprogram/contest/> /END/