Real-time Online Korean Classes begin on April 13th.

The Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles will launch a new semester of Real-time Online Korean Classes beginning on April 13th.

A total of nine levels are offered (Introductory Korean, Basic A, B, Intermediate A, B, C, and Advanced A), registration is only possible online at <https://www.kccla.org/koreanlanguageprogram/> beginning on March 30th on a first-come, first-served basis.

We are also pleased to announce that a free online Korean Level Test is available at <https://www.sejonghaktang.org/sjcu/levelTest/levelGuide.do>. You will be able to get an immediate evaluation of your appropriate level. You may only register for ONE level and transfers between levels will not be permitted.

Each class will be strictly capped at 30 students to ensure the best possible remote learning experience. As with the other sessions, the Spring 2021 classes will run every Tuesday evening from 7 - 9 pm PT.

The program is open to anyone 18 or older interested in learning about Korean language and culture. For information, call (323)936-3025, or visit <https://www.kccla.org/koreanlanguageprogram/>
