KCCLA offers In-person & Online Korean Classes.

The Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles (KCCLA) and King Sejong Institute Center, U.S.A (KSICUSA) will launch a new 12-week semester of Online and In-person Korean Classes beginning on September 14th, 2021.

A total of nine classes in seven levels will be offered for each of the online and in-person classes (Introductory Korean, Basic A, B, Intermediate A, B, C, and Advanced A). Registration is only possible online at <https://www.kccla.org/koreanlanguageprogram/> beginning on August 31st on a first-come, first-served basis.

Each in-person class (Tuesday evenings from 7 - 9 pm PT from September 14 to November 30, 2021) will enroll a maximum of 10 students for social distancing and a low student-to-instructor ratio. Each student must be able to present a COVID-19 Vaccination Record.

Online classes (Thursday evenings from 7 - 9 pm PT from September 16 to December 2, 2021) will be strictly capped at 30 students to ensure the best possible remote learning experience.

We are also pleased to announce that a free online Korean Level Test is available at <https://nuri.iksi.or.kr/front/page/participation/onlineLevelTest/main.do> You will be able to get an immediate evaluation of your appropriate level. You may only register for ONE level and transfers between levels will not be permitted.

The program is open to anyone 18 or older interested in learning about Korean language and culture. For information, call (323)936-3025, or visit <https://www.kccla.org/koreanlanguageprogram/>
